

Chester County Department of Aging Services to Host Listening Sessions on Pennsylvania's Master Plan for Older Adults

A 10-year, state-led and stakeholder-driven strategic plan designed to help transform the infrastructure and coordination of services for older Pennsylvanians. The master plan will also reflect the needs and preferences of this population to live where they choose and access the supports they need to thrive and age in place.

The listening sessions will take place on the following dates/locations:

- Wednesday, August 30th at 10:00 am - Brandywine Valley Active Aging (In-person)
250 Martin Luther King Jr. Boulevard, Coatesville, PA 19320
- Monday, September 11th at 10:00 am - Govt. Services Center (In-person & Virtual)
601 Westtown Road, West Chester, PA 19380
- Thursday, September 14th at 10:00 am - Kennett Area Senior Center (In-person)
427 South Walnut Street, Kennett Square, PA 19348

Stakeholders, older adults, and people living with disabilities, their families, caregivers, and community leaders are invited to hear an overview of the plan, its core principles, and why such a plan is needed for Pennsylvania. There will be opportunities for those in attendance to provide comments and input on the plan.

Those interested in attending the listening sessions should RSVP/register at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/CCAreg>.

Individuals who are unable to attend can still provide input on the plan. They can either email AgingPlan@pa.gov, provide feedback through an online form or mail the Pennsylvania Department of Aging, c/o Master Plan, 555 Walnut St., 5th Floor, Harrisburg, PA 17101.
