

From the Desk of Executive Director, Julie Gaudan

Happy Holidays! Looking forward to a busy month of celebrations with plenty of music and food. It kicks off quickly with our fundraiser, the Annual Phoenixville Candlelight Tour on December 2nd. For over 20 years a private committee put this event together. This year they passed the “candle” to the Center to plan and hold the event. We have 11 locations in the center of Phoenixville. Our premier location is the Byrne Mansion, now the R. Strunk Funeral Home, where the Historical Society of Phoenixville will have a presentation, St. John Lutheran Church choir will sing, The Schuylkill Vally Model Railroad Club will set up a display, and the building will be decorated for the holidays. If the tour is too much, consider stopping at the Senior Center for a light dinner and shopping for homemade goods. It is a great way to start your holiday celebration.

Center Closed

Christmas Holiday

1/1/24 New Years Day

Next up is a special breakfast for our Veterans followed by a program on Remembrance Day, December 7th. Former Marine, Ray Liberto will share the mission of Operation Enduring Warrior and how it supports combat veterans. You won't want to miss the Hanukkah breakfast on December 14th. The Notables will entertain at the birthday social on December 13th and enjoy the sounds of Sinatra on December 20th after a delicious holiday meal.

The center is closed on Monday December 25 and Tuesday December 26. Rather than close the center completely between Christmas and New Year's Day, we will operate on a modified schedule, closing at 1:00 pm December 27 thru 29. Please double check the calendar – we moved yoga to 10am the morning on December 28! January 1st, the center will be closed in observance of New Year's Day.

A special thank you to the 100 Women of Phoenixville. These members of the community meet twice a year to select one local charity where they can make a big impact by each donating $100. This is the second time we were selected to present. While we were not selected, the 92 women present learned about what we do every day. Check out their website for more information.

If you are looking for holiday gifts, Sweet Heart 50/50 tickets give in more ways than one! They are for sale now online or at the Center. 1 for $10/ 3 for $25

Just a reminder, stay home if you are not feeling well. Protect your friends, protect yourself.

See you at the Center!

Julie

“Skipping Christmas” by John Grisham

Imagine a year without Christmas. No crowded shops, no corny office parties, no fruitcakes, no unwanted presents. That's just what Luther and Nora Krank have in mind when they decide that, just this once, they'll skip the holiday altogether. But, as this weary couple is about to discover, skipping Christmas brings enormous consequences - and isn't half as easy as they'd imagined.
